The Directors may refuse any application for membership at its absolute discretion. Applications for membership shall be in such form as the Directors may from time to time direct. Any such form may provide that a member may specify an electronic address which shall be

11. A member may be expelled for conduct prejudicial to the Society by a resolution carried by a majority of at least two-thirds of those members voting at a General Meeting of the Society of which due notice has been given, provided that the grounds for expulsion have been specified in the notices calling the meeting and that the member whose expulsion is to be considered shall be given the opportunity to state her/his/its case to the meeting. If on due notice having been served the member fails to attend the meeting the meeting may proceed in the member's absence.
12. No member expelled from membership shall be re-admitted except by a resolution carried by a majority of at least two-thirds of those members voting at a General Meeting of which due notice has been given.

GENERAL MEETINGS

13. An Annual General Meeting shall be held within six months of the close of the financial year of the Society, the business of which shall comprise:
 - (a) the receipt of the accounts and balance sheet and of the reports of the Directors and auditor (if any);
 - (b) the appointment of an auditor (subject to Rule 68);
 - (c) the election of Directors (or the announcement of the results of the election if held previously by ballot);
 - (d) a decision on the application of any surplus in accordance with Rule 77;
 - (e) the transaction of any other business included in the notice convening the meeting.
14. All General Meetings other than the Annual General Meeting shall be called Special General Meetings.
15. A Special General Meeting shall be convened either upon an order of the Directors or at the request of three members of the Society or ten per cent of the membership, whichever is the greater.
16. An Annual or a Special General Meeting shall be called by at least fourteen days' notice in writing posted, hand delivered or emailed to the postal or electronic address of every member recorded in the register of members, specifying whether the meeting is an Annual or a Special General Meeting and stating the time, date and place at which it is to be held. The notice shall contain details of the nature of the business to be transacted, and no business may be transacted at a General Meeting other than that specified in the notices calling it. Where notice of an Annual or Special General Meeting is given on the Society's website, notice sent to an electronic address may be effectively served if it includes a link to the notice on the Society's website.
17. A notice sent by post to a member's registered postal address shall be deemed to have been duly served forty-eight hours after its posting. A notice delivered by hand or sent to an electronic address shall be deemed to have been duly served 24 hours after the notice was hand delivered or the electronic communication was sent. The accidental omission to send any notice to or the non-receipt of any notice by any member shall not invalidate the proceedings at the meeting.
18. If the Society has appointed an auditor in accordance with Rule 65 they shall be entitled to attend General Meetings of the Society and to receive all notices of and communications relating to any General Meeting which any member of the Society is entitled to receive. The auditor shall be entitled to be heard at any meeting on any part of the business of the meeting which is of proper concern to an auditor.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

19. A corporate body which is a member of the Society shall appoint a representative who shall during the continuance of her/his appointment be entitled to exercise in any General Meeting of the Society all such rights and powers as the member organisation would exercise if it were an individual person. The Society shall require such notification of an organisation's appointed representative as the Directors may from time to time decide.
20. No person shall be entitled to vote on any question at a General Meeting other than an individual member of the Society or the duly appointed representative of a corporate body which is a member.
21. No business shall be transacted at a General Meeting unless a quorum is present in person. Unless and until otherwise decided by the Society in General Meeting, a quorum shall be three members.
22. If within half an hour after the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened upon the requisition of members, shall be dissolved. In any other case it shall stand adjourned until a day between seven and fourteen days after the date set for the original meeting, and all members shall be given such notice as is practicable. If at such an adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour after the time set for the meeting, then the members present shall constitute a quorum.
23. The Chairperson of the Society shall preside at every General Meeting. In the event of her/his absence or unwillingness to act, the members present shall choose one of their number to be Chairperson of the meeting.
24. The Chairperson may with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present, and shall if so directed by the meeting, adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at an adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. Where a meeting is adjourned for twenty-one days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of the original meeting; otherwise it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.
25. At any General Meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless a secret ballot is, before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands, demanded by at least two members present. Unless a secret ballot be so demanded, a declaration by the Chairperson that a resolution has on a show of hands been carried or lost with an entry to that effect in the book containing the minutes of the proceedings of the Society shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportions of the votes recorded in favour or against such resolution.
26. If a secret ballot is duly demanded it shall be taken in such a manner as the Chairperson directs, provided that no member shall have more than one vote, and the result of the ballot shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the ballot was demanded.
27. The demand for a secret ballot shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any other business than the question upon which a ballot has been demanded. The demand for a secret ballot may be withdrawn.
28. Every member shall hold one vote only on each question to be decided at a General Meeting. Any other person, whether or not a member of the Society, may act as a proxy for a member who is absent from the meeting. Notice of an appointment of a proxy by a member must be received by the Secretary no later than 48 hours (excluding weekends and public holidays in England and Wales) prior to the meeting. Proxies shall be appointed using procedures agreed on by the Directors. A proxy may be instructed by the member for whom s/he is acting to vote this way or that on a particular resolution, or may be authorised to vote in accordance with her/his own judgement. Except where otherwise specified by these Rules or by the Act, questions shall be resolved by a simple majority of votes cast.

29. In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a ballot, the Chairperson shall not have a second or casting vote and the resolution shall be deemed to be lost.
30. A resolution in writing signed by all the members for the time being entitled to vote at General Meetings shall be valid and effective as if the same had been passed at a General Meeting duly convened and held and may consist of several documents in the same form each signed by one or more members.

AMENDMENTS TO RULES

31. Any of these Rules may be rescinded or amended or a new Rule made by a vote of two-thirds of members of the Society voting at a General Meeting of which fourteen clear days' prior notice has been given, such notice to include details of the change(s) to be proposed at that meeting.
32. No amendment of Rules is valid until registered by the Financial Services Authority. When submitting the Rule amendments for registration the Secretary may at their sole discretion accept any minor alterations required or suggested by the Financial Services Authority without reference back to a further Special General Meeting of the Society.

THE DIRECTORS

35. New Directors shall be elected in accordance with such procedures as may be adopted by the Society from time to time, provided that only members of the Society and representatives of organisations which are members may stand for election to, or nominate persons to stand for election to the Board of Directors.
36. The Directors may at any time co-opt any member of the Society or the representative of an organisation which is a member to fill a casual vacancy in the Board of Directors or up to two persons with relevant professional skills who are not members of the Society, provided that at no time shall more than one-third of the Directors be co-opted Directors. A casual vacancy shall be deemed to exist if the number of Directors should drop below the minimum prescribed in these Rules or below the number elected at the preceding Annual General Meeting.

37. In the event that the number of Directors should drop below the minimum number prescribed in these Rules, the Directors may act to increase their number or to call a General Meeting of the Society, but for no other purpose.
38. A Director shall declare an interest in any contract or matter in which s/he has a personal material or financial interest, whether directly or indirectly, and shall not vote in respect of such contract or matter except where that interest is shared with a majority of the other Directors.

42. The Directors shall elect a Chairperson, Secretary and Treasurer of the Society. The Chairperson must be a Director and a member of the Society. The Secretary and the Treasurer do not need to be Directors or members of the Society. Meetings of the Directors may also be held via telephone or other electronic means, provided that all Directors wishing to participate are able to do so and are able to communicate with each other at all times. The Secretary shall at the request of two or more Directors summon a meeting of the Directors at any reasonable time by giving all Directors reasonable notice of the date, time and venue for the meeting and the general nature of the business to be considered.
